

HEADS OF HOUSE

St Hugh's College

Dame Elish Angiolini, DBE, QC, the former Lord Advocate of Scotland, was appointed Principal of St Hugh's College with effect from September 2012.

Nuffield College

Andrew Dilnot, Principal of St Hugh's College, Pro-Vice-Chancellor at Oxford, was elected Warden of Nuffield College with effect from 31 August 2012.

Blackfriars

The Revd Dr Simon Gaine, OP, Tutor in Systematic Theology at Blackfriars, was appointed Regent with effect from April 2012.

St Benet's Hall

Werner Jeanrond, Professor of Divinity at the University of Glasgow, was elected Master with effect from 1 September 2012.

He is the first layman to be Master of the Hall.

Wadham College

Lord Macdonald of River Glaven, QC, one of the country's top criminal lawyers and a former Director of Public Prosecutions, was elected Warden of Wadham College with effect from 1 September 2012.

St John's College

Professor Maggie Snowling, FBA, FMedSci, Professor in the Department of Psychology at the University of York and Co-Director of the Centre for Reading and Language at York, was elected President of St John's College with effect from 1 September 2012.

Lincoln College

Professor Henry Woudhuysen, FBA, Dean of the Faculty of the Arts and Humanities at University College, London, was elected Rector of Lincoln College with effect from 1 September 2012.

